

Position Summary

R.H. Conwell Elementary School seeks an enthusiastic and reflective educator to teach in a Grade 3/4 multi-age classroom within a rural, close-knit community. The ideal candidate values strong relationships, place-based learning, and the use of the outdoor environment as an extension of the classroom. This teacher will design engaging, developmentally appropriate instruction that meets the academic, social-emotional, and individual needs of learners across two grade levels.

The successful candidate will embrace the opportunities of a multi-age model while fostering curiosity, independence, collaboration, and stewardship of the natural world.

Instruction & Curriculum

- Plan and deliver standards-aligned instruction for students in Grades 3 and 4
- Design differentiated lessons that support a range of learning needs, readiness levels, and interests
- Integrate outdoor, experiential, and place-based learning into literacy, mathematics, science, and social studies
- Use the school grounds, local natural features, and community resources to enhance learning
- Implement inquiry-based and hands-on learning experiences that encourage exploration and critical thinking
- Use formative and summative assessments to guide instruction and monitor student progress

Classroom Environment

- Create a warm, inclusive classroom community reflective of a rural school setting
- Foster independence, collaboration, and responsibility within a multi-age classroom structure
- Support students' social-emotional development through community-building practices
- Implement developmentally appropriate, positive behavior supports
- Promote environmental stewardship and safe, responsible outdoor learning practices

Collaboration & Community Engagement

- Collaborate with colleagues across grade levels and disciplines
- Work closely with special educators, specialists, and support staff
- Build strong, trusting relationships with families and caregivers
- Communicate effectively with families about student learning, including outdoor and experiential learning opportunities
- Partner with community members and local organizations to enrich place-based learning

Professional Practice

- Participate actively in professional development and collaborative planning
- Reflect on instructional practice and seek continuous improvement
- Contribute positively to the culture, mission, and values of R.H. Conwell
- Uphold district policies, safety protocols, and professional expectations

Qualifications

- Valid Massachusetts Elementary Teaching License (Grades 1–6 or equivalent)
- Experience or strong interest in multi-age instruction and differentiated learning
- Interest or experience in outdoor education, experiential learning, or place-based instruction
- Strong understanding of elementary curriculum and instructional best practices
- Commitment to equity, inclusion, and culturally responsive teaching

Preferred Attributes

- Experience teaching in a rural school setting
- Comfort teaching and supervising students in outdoor learning environments
- Ability to integrate environmental literacy and stewardship into daily instruction
- Strong relationship-building skills with students, families, and colleagues
- Flexible, reflective, and collaborative approach to teaching
